

Einhell Germany AG set up a subsidiary in Australia

Einhell has incorporated a subsidiary in Australia. After registration in the local commercial register on 16th of December 2008 the company has now started its business activity. With the presence in Australia Einhell intends to provide a better service by closeness to actual customers as well as to generate new business in the Australian market.

Landau/Isar, 8th April 2009
The Board of Directors